

YOUNG PEOPLE'S LEADERSHIP AND SAFETY CHAMPIONS

Young People Who Lead

- Have you wanted to learn about some of the issues that affect young people?
- Global events?
- Have a voice?
- Develop new skills?

Starting in October 2019, 1 and half hours a week and running for 11 weeks during term only, the programme will challenge your thinking about current and global events such as extremism, media, gender equality, hatred and discrimination, social media, role of government. You will receive training on safety for young people and how to develop yourself professionally. The programme is dynamic and energetic and delivered by an highly experienced ex Police Sergeant. Food and refreshments will be provided throughout. All you need to do is bring yourself and be prepared to be challenged and have a great time!
