

Fighting mouth cancer

www.mouthcancer.org

The two leading causes of mouth cancer in the UK are drinking too much alcohol and smoking. To reduce your risk visit your dentist regularly

As part of your routine check-up, your dentist will examine your mouth and check for signs of mouth cancer. The outlook is much better if the cancer is diagnosed early.

To find a dentist near you visit www.nhs.uk or phone 111

