

SLOUGH COMMUNITIES COUNTERING HATE

Participants are led through the emotional journey of radicalisation to see how people are drawn into extremist ideas and groups.

A unique interactive 1.5 hour workshop designed for community groups, frontline practitioners, and faith organisations to combat hateful ideologies and build resilience.

This workshop is a multimedia workshop that combines academic knowledge, personal experience and testimonies.

Workshops are led by leading experts in the field of extremism and are sensitively adapted to demonstrate the real effects of extremist narratives and the vulnerabilities of those who become drawn into them.
