

Call for ideas

Open Doors, a scheme bringing empty high street shops to life by matching landlords with individuals or groups looking for space to house their activities.

Open Doors is now looking for participants to trial their ideas in one of the available high street shops in Rochford, Fenton, Slough, Bradford and Kettering. Do you have an idea that could make positive use of a high street space and involves bringing people together? Apply now!

The spaces are offered free of charge to successful applicants for a period up to 12 months.

Find more information on the pilot and ways to apply here: meanwhile.org.uk/opendoors

OPEN DOORS

a project by Ministry of Housing, Communities & Local Government in partnership with Meanwhile Foundation and Meanwhile Space CIC