Artswork are offering £500 in funding to 25 young creatives aged 13-30.

Their RISE scheme supports young creatives in overcoming barriers to developing their creative practice who are based in the South East and parts of the South West – a map can be viewed via their website. Spanning the wide range of UK creative industries, the funding aims to empower and invest in the next generation of artists and creators.

Young people are invited to apply with a short video, demonstrating what their creative practice is, what they would do with the funding and how they think this micro-investment would support their aspirations and help them overcome any barriers they may have as a creative.

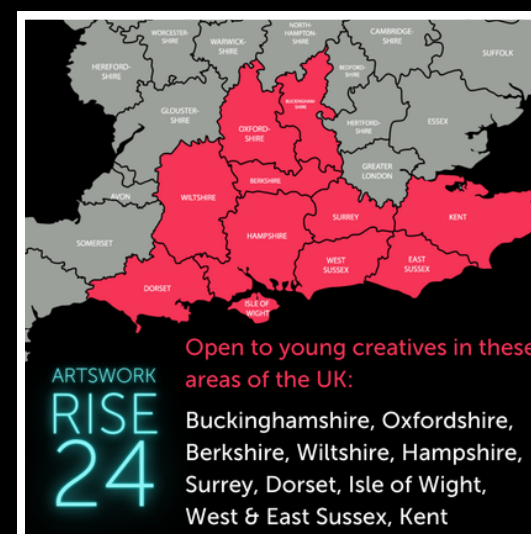

Applicants will also be asked to supply some examples of their work and to fill in an application form.

Deadline - 30 June
