Launching our strategies for early help, tackling exploitation, violence and domestic abuse

Aims of the event

➤ Put Slough's young people, families and communities at the heart of our plans, highlighting voices and lived experience

➤ Share our action plans ➤ to gain commitment to collaboration to create safety from violence and exploitation, including child criminal exploitation, child sexual exploitation and Modern Slavery

➤ Promote relationship-based approaches to providing help and support for young people and families to prevent harm from violence and exploitation.
